Founded in 1982, Hills Grammar is an independent, non-selective, co-educational and non-sectarian Pre-Kindergarten to Year 12 school situated 30km north-west of Sydney. The ethos of the School is underpinned by a strong values framework in which each student is encouraged to strive for excellence in scholarship, personal development and citizenship. Hills Grammar is a vibrant community with over 900 students and 120 academic and support staff sharing a beautiful 18 hectare campus with first-class facilities. The School offers a broad, balanced curriculum and an extensive co-curricular program including a wide range of activities in music, sport, outdoor education, leadership and service, and the creative and spoken arts. Hills Grammar is an authorised World IB (International Baccalaureate) School - Primary Years Program.
