KAMBALA

Kambala is an Anglican, independent day and boarding school for girls located on the rising shore above Rose Bay with a breathtaking view of Sydney Harbour. Founded in 1887, Kambala caters for students from Preparation to Year 12, with boarders generally entering the School from Year 7. Kambala offers a broad and holistic education and the opportunity for students to truly excel. Kambala's rich and varied programs, administered in a positive and supportive environment, inspire every student to realise her own purpose with integrity, passion and generosity. Kambala aspires to raise leaders of the future who are academically curious and intellectually brave.

SCHOLARSHIPS ON OFFER

Kambala is offering a range of scholarships, including: a Year 5 Academic Scholarship; Year 7 Academic and Boarding Scholarships; a Year 7 Music Scholarship; a Year 9 Boarding Scholarship; The Hawke Scholarship (offered to the daughter or granddaughter of an Old Girl) open to girls entering Years 7, 9 or 11; and a Rural Assistance Bursary for Boarders, applicable for entry into the Senior School (Years 7 to 11) for a boarder from a rural area based on needs.

Kambala offers both the Higher School Certificate and the International Baccalaureate Diploma.
