Waverley College has a long and rich history, having celebrated its centenary in 2003. The College caters to approximately 1,400 students from Years 5 to 12 across two campuses.

As part of the Edmund Rice Education Australia (EREA) network, Waverley College strives to uphold the vision of its founder. His work is exemplified in Waverley College's social justice initiatives, in which students are encouraged to reach out to people in need, demonstrate compassion and challenge negative thinking.
